NOTICE OF REMOVAL OF CIVIL
ACTION TO THE UNITED STATES
DISTRICT COURT

Superior Court of California, County of San Diego Case Number: 37-2007-00075612-
CU-OE-CTL

Complaint Filed: September 25, 2007

TO THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA AND TO PLAINTIFF AND HIS COUNSEL OF RECORD:

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1441 and 1446, Defendant
Spherion Atlantic Enterprises LLC, ("Spherion" or "Defendant"), hereby removes the abovecaptioned action from the Superior Court of the State of California for the County of San Diego to the United States District Court for the Southern District of California, asserting that this Court has jurisdiction over the action pursuant to the Class Action Fairness Act of 2005
("CAFA"), based upon the following grounds:

NOTICE OF REMOVAL OF CIVIL ACTION TO THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT

1 1. This removal involves an action that was filed in the Superior Court of the State
2 of California for the County of San Diego, entitled Philip J. Martinet v. Spherion Atlantic
3 Enterprises, LLC, Case No. 37-2007-00075612-CU-OE-CTL. (A true and correct copy of the 4 Complaint in this action is attached hereto as Exhibit A).

5 2. The Complaint purports to assert eight claims for relief against Spherion
6 stemming from Plaintiff Philip Martinet's employment with Defendant and its alleged failure to 7 observe, as to Plaintiff and the purported class of similarly situated individuals,¹ requirements set
8 forth in the California Labor Code – sections 204 and 221 (unlawful deductions of earned
9 wages); sections 510 and 1194 (failure to pay overtime); sections 226.7, 512 and Cal. Code
10 Regs., Title 8 Section 11040 (failure to provide meal breaks or compensation in lieu thereof);
11 section 226.7 and Cal. Code Regs., Title 8 Section 11040 (failure to provide rest periods or 12 compensation in lieu thereof); section 2802 (failure to reimburse for reasonable business 13 expenses); sections 226 and 226.3 (failure to provide properly itemized wage statements);
14 sections 201-203 (failure to pay compensation at time of termination); and Business and 15 Professions Code Section 17200 et seq. (unlawful and unfair business practices).

16 3. The Complaint was filed on September 25, 2007. Spherion has not been served
17 with the Summons and Complaint. Removal statute does not run until a party has been formally 18 served with the summons and complaint under the applicable state law. (Murphy Bros., Inc. v.
19 Michetti Pipe Stringing, Inc. (1999) 526 U.S. 344, 347-48.)

20 4. Spherion filed its Answer to the Complaint in State Court on November 13, 2007.
21 (A true and correct copy of Spherion's Answer is attached hereto as Exhibit B.) Spherion has 22 not filed any other pleadings or papers in this action prior to this notice.

23 5. This Notice of Removal is timely as it is filed within thirty (30) days of service of 24 process of the Summons and Complaint. (28 U.S.C. § 1446(b).) By appearing in the State Court
25 action, effective on November 13, 2007, Spherion has waived service of the summons and

26 1 Spherion disputes, and reserves the right to contest at the appropriate time, Plaintiff's
27 allegations that this action can properly proceed as a class action.

1 complaint and has filed this Notice of Removal within 30 days of filing its Answer in the State
2 Court action. (Ghiradelli v. Greene, (1880) 56 C 629.) Spherion has not secured the consent of 3 the "DOE" Defendants before removing this action because Spherion does not know the identity
4 of the "DOE" Defendants and has no reason to believe that any of them have been properly
5 served or have voluntarily appeared in this action. In addition, pursuant to CAFA, Spherion need
6 not obtain the consent of any other defendant to remove this action. (28 U.S.C. § 1453(b).)

7 6. The Court has original jurisdiction of this action under CAFA, codified in 8 relevant part in 28 U.S.C. § 1332(d). As set forth below, this action is properly removable, 9 pursuant to the provisions of 28 U.S.C. § 1441(a), as the amount in controversy exceeds
10 $5,000,000, exclusive of interest and costs, and is a class action in which at least one class
11 member is a citizen of a state different from that of Spherion.

12 7. Plaintiff alleges that he was employed within the County of San Diego, State of 13 California, and alleges that he is a resident of the State of California. (Ex. A, Complaint at ¶ 1.)
14 For diversity of citizenship purposes, a person is a "citizen" of the state in which he is domiciled.
15 (Kantor v. Wellesly Galleries, Ltd., 704 F.2d 1088, 1090 (9th Cir. 1983).) Residence is prima facte evidence of domicile. (State Farm Mut. Auto Ins. Co. v. Dyer, 29 F.3d 514, 520 (10th Cir.
16 1994).) Accordingly, Spherion is informed and believes, and on that basis alleges, that 17 California is the state in which Plaintiff is domiciled and, therefore, Plaintiff is, and was at the 18 commencement of this civil action, a citizen of California.

19 8. Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1332(c), "a corporation shall be deemed to be a citizen of 20 any State by which it has been incorporated and of the State where it has its principal place of 21 business." Spherion is incorporated in the State of Delaware with its principal place of business
22 in the State of Florida. Spherion is a citizen of Delaware and Florida. Spherion is not now, and 23 was not at the time of the filing of the Complaint, a citizen of the State of California within the 24 meaning of the removal statutes.

NOTICE OF REMOVAL OF CIVIL ACTION TO THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT

1 9. Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1441(a), the residence of fictitious and unknown
2 defendants should be disregarded for purposes of establishing removal jurisdiction under 28
3 U.S.C. § 1332. (Fristos v. Reynolds Metals Co., 615 F.2d 1209, 1213 (9th Cir. 1980) (unnamed
4 defendants are not required to join in a removal petition).) Thus, the existence of Doe
5 Defendants one through fifty inclusive, does not deprive this Court of jurisdiction. (Albrecht v.
6 Dow Chemical Co., 443 F.3d 676, 679-680 (9th Cir. 2006) (rule applied in CAFA removal).)

7 10. The claims of the individual members in a class action are aggregated to 8 determine if the amount in controversy exceeds the sum or value of $5,000,000. (28 U.S.C. § 9 1332(d)(6).) In addition, Congress intended for federal jurisdiction to be appropriate under 10 CAFA "if the value of the matter in litigation exceeds $5,000,000 either from the viewpoint of 11 the plaintiff or the viewpoint of the defendant, and regardless of the type of relief sought (e.g., 12 damages, injunctive relief, or declaratory relief)." (Senate Judiciary Committee Report, S. REP.
13 109-14, at 42.) Moreover, the Senate Judiciary Committee's Report on the final version of 14 CAFA makes clear that any doubts regarding the maintenance of interstate class actions in state
15 or federal court should be resolved in favor of federal jurisdiction. (S. REP. 109-14, at 42-43
16 ("[I]f a federal court is uncertain about whether 'all matters in controversy' in a purported class
17 action 'do not in the aggregate exceed the sum or value of $5,000,000,' the court should err in 18 favor of exercising jurisdiction over the case Overall, new section 1332(d) is intended to 19 expand substantially federal court jurisdiction over class actions. Its provisions should be read 20 broadly, with a strong preference that interstate class actions should be heard in a federal court if 21 properly removed by any defendant").)

22 11. The alleged amount in controversy in this class action exceeds in the aggregate, 23 $5,000,000. The Complaint alleges that there are "at least 50,000 members in the CLASS and at 24 least 10,000 members in the SUBCLASS." (Ex. A, Complaint at ¶¶ 25-26.²) The Complaint

25 2 The CLASS is alleged as: "All current and former California-based, hourly, non-exempt
26 employees of Defendant SPHERION ATLANTIC ENTERPRISES LLC who were employed by
27 SPHERION ATLANTIC ENTERPRISES LLC between September 25, 2003 and the present
(hereinafter, "the CLASS")."

1 seeks payment of wages, overtime wages, compensation for meal breaks, compensation for rest
2 periods, compensation for business expenses, penalties, and statutory damages. (Ex. A,
3 Complaint ¶¶ 13-23.)

4 12. Plaintiff Martinet was paid a wage of $20 per hour while working for Spherion.
5 Plaintiff Martinet alleges that his claims are typical of the claims of all members of the CLASS
6 and SUBCLASS. (Ex. A, Complaint ¶27.) Therefore, in calculating the amount in controversy
7 Plaintiff Martinet's wage will be used in the calculations.

8 13. Plaintiff's Complaint alleges in his first cause of action that Defendant unlawfully
9 deducted wages from the putative class's pay in violation of Labor Code § 221. (Ex. A, 10 Complaint at ¶ 32.) Plaintiff seeks compensation for unpaid wages, pre-judgment interest,
11 attorneys' fees and costs. (Ex. A, Complaint ¶ 35.) A reasonable estimate of the amount in 12 controversy for Plaintiff's allegation of unlawfully deducted wages is $1,000,000. This total was 13 reached by multiplying the estimated number of putative class members for the CLASS - 50,000
14 - by $20, one hour of pay at Plaintiff Martinet's wage.

15 14. Plaintiff's Complaint alleges in his second cause of action that Defendant failed to 16 pay overtime wages to the putative class in violation of Labor Code § 510. (Ex. A, Complaint ¶
17 38.) Plaintiff seeks compensation equal to the unpaid overtime wages, prejudgment interest,
18 attorneys' fees and costs. (Ex. A, Complaint ¶ 39.) A reasonable estimate of the amount in 19 controversy for Plaintiff's allegation of failure to pay overtime is $1,500,000. This total was 20 reached by multiplying the estimate number of putative class members for the CLASS - 50,000
21 - by $30, one hour of overtime pay at Plaintiff Martinet's overtime rate of pay.

22 15. Plaintiff's Complaint alleges in his third cause of action that Defendant failed to 23 allow members of the putative class to take meal periods in violation of Labor Code § 226.7.
24

25 The SUBCLASS is alleged as: "All former California based, hourly, non-exempt
26 employees of Defendant SPHERION ATLANTIC ENTERPRISES LLC who separated their 27 employment with SPHERION ATLANTIC ENTERPRISES LLC between September 25, 2004
and the present (hereinafter, "the SUBCLASS")."

28 NOTICE OF REMOVAL OF CIVIL ACTION TO THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT

1 (Ex. A, Complaint at ¶ 41.) Plaintiff seeks compensation in the form of additional wages for 2 each work shift lasting more than five hours during which members of the putative class were
3 not provided with thirty-minute meal periods. (Ex. A, Complaint at ¶¶ 43-44.) A reasonable
4 estimate of the amount in controversy for Plaintiff's allegations of Defendant's failure to provide 5 meal breaks is $1,000,000. This total was reached by multiplying the estimated number of 6 putative class members for the CLASS – 50,000 – by $20, one hour of pay for Plaintiff Martinet.

7 16. Plaintiff's Complaint alleges in his fourth cause of action that Defendant failed to 8 allow members of the putative class to take rest periods in violation of Labor Code § 226.7. (Ex.
9 A, Complaint at ¶ 46.) Plaintiff seeks compensation in the form of additional wages for each
10 work period lasting four hours during which members of the putative class were not provided
11 with ten-minute rest periods. (Ex. A, Complaint at ¶¶ 47-48.) A reasonable estimate of the 12 amount in controversy for Plaintiff's allegations of Defendant's failure to provide rest breaks is 13 $1,000,000. This total was reached by multiplying the estimated number of putative class
14 members for the CLASS – 50,000 – by $20, one hour of pay for Plaintiff Martinet.

15 17. Plaintiff's Complaint alleges in his fifth cause of action that Defendant failed to 16 reimburse the putative class for reasonable business expenses in violation of Labor Code § 2802.
17 (Ex. A, Complaint at ¶ 51.) Plaintiff seeks recovery for the class of the class's un-reimbursed
18 expenditures, losses, interest thereon and attorneys' fees and costs. (Ex. A, Complaint at ¶ 52.)
19 A reasonable estimate of the amount in controversy for Plaintiff's allegations of Defendant's
20 failure to reimburse the class for business expenses is $1,000,000. This total was reached by 21 multiplying the estimated number of putative class members for the CLASS – 50,000 – by $20, 22 one hour of pay for Plaintiff Martinet.

23 18. Plaintiff's Complaint alleges in his sixth cause of action that Defendant failed to 24 provide the putative class with itemized statements at the time of the payment of wages that
25 recorded or documented expenses deducted from class members earnings, in violation of Labor
26 Code § 226. (Ex. A, Complaint ¶ 55.) Plaintiff seeks recovery for the class either the greater of

1 $50 per employee for the initial pay period in which the violation occurred, and $100 per
2 employee for each subsequent violation, but not exceeding in the aggregate a penalty of $4,000
3 per employee. (Ex. A, Complaint ¶57.) A reasonable estimate of the amount in controversy for 4 Plaintiff's allegations of Defendant's failure to provide an accurate itemized pay stub is
5 $2,500,000. This total was reached by multiplying the estimated number of putative class
6 members for the CLASS – 50,000 – by $50, the penalty for an initial violation of Labor Code §
7 226.

8 19. Plaintiff's Complaint alleges in his seventh cause of action that Defendant failed 9 to timely pay subclass members their final wages upon their separation of employment in 10 violation of Labor Code § 201. (Ex. A, Complaint at ¶¶ 13, 59-60.) Plaintiff seeks "waiting
11 time" penalties, pursuant to California Labor Code section 203, on behalf of each of the putative
12 subclass members, in an amount up to 30 days of wages for each putative subclass member. (Ex.
13 A, Complaint ¶¶59-60, 26-29.) A reasonable estimate of the amount in controversy for 14 Plaintiff's allegations of Defendant's failure to timely pay subclass members their final wages is 15 $48,000,000. This total was reached by multiplying the estimate number of putative subclass
16 members for the SUBCLASS – 10,000 – by $4,800, the estimated daily wage of $160 multiplied
17 by the 30 days waiting time penalty period.

18 20. The Complaint also alleges that putative class members are entitled to recover
19 attorneys' fees under Labor Code § 218.5. (Ex. A, Complaint ¶¶ 14, 35, 39, 52.) Requests for 20 attorneys' fees must be taken into account in ascertaining the amount in controversy. (Galt G/S 21 v. JSS Scandinavia, 142 F.3d 1150, 1156 (9th Cir. 1998) (claims for statutory attorneys' fees are 22 to be included in amount in controversy, regardless of whether award is discretionary or 23 mandatory; Lowdermilk v. United States Bank Nat'l Assoc., 479 F.3d 994, 1000 (9th Cir. 2007)
24 (rule applied in CAFA removal).)

25 21. Thus, although Defendant denies Plaintiff's allegations or that he or the class that
26 he purports to represent is entitled to relief for which he has prayed, based on Plaintiff's
27

1 allegations and prayer for relief, the amount in controversy is $56,000,000. This amount exceeds
2 the $5,000,000 threshold set forth under 28 U.S.C. § 1332(d)(2) for removal jurisdiction.

3 22. Because diversity of citizenship exists – Plaintiff being a citizen of the State of 4 California and Spherion being a citizen of the States of Delaware and Florida – and because the 5 amount in controversy exceeds $5,000,000, this Court has original jurisdiction of the action
6 pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1332(d)(2). This action is therefore a proper one for removal from this 7 Court.

8 23. Venue lies in the United States District Court for the Southern District of 9 California, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1441, 1446(a), and 84(c)(2). This action originally was 10 brought in the Superior Court of the State of California, County of San Diego, which is located
11 within the Southern District of the State of California. Therefore, venue is proper because it is 12 the “district and division embracing the place where such action is pending.” (28 U.S.C. § 13 1441(a).)

14 24. A true and correct copy of this Notice of Removal will be promptly served on 15 Plaintiff and filed with the Clerk of the Superior Court of the State of California for the County
16 of San Diego, as required under 28 U.S.C. § 1446(d).

17 WHEREFORE, Spherion prays that the above action pending before the Superior Court
18 of the State of California for the County of San Diego be removed to the United States District
19 Court for the Southern District of California.

9 Plaintiff, PHILIP J. MARTINET, on behalf of himself, all others similarly situated, and on 10 behalf of the general public, alleges causes of action against defendants, and each of them, as 11 follows:

12 GENERAL ALLEGATIONS AND IDENTIFICATION OF THE PARTIES

13 1. Plaintiff, PHILIP J. MARTINET ("PLAINTIFF"), is a competent adult who resides
14 in the City of San Diego, County of San Diego, State of California. From his date of hire, at or 15 around July 1, 2007 to until his date of separation of employment at or around August 18, 2007,
16 PLAINTIFF was employed as a non-exempt, hourly employee by Defendant SPHERION
17 ATLANTIC ENTERPRISES LLC in the County of San Diego, State of California.

18 2. PLAINTIFF is informed and believes that Defendant SPHERION ATLANTIC
19 ENTERPRISES LLC is a Delaware limited liability company with its principal place of business in 20 Fort Lauderdale, Florida. At all times mentioned herein, Defendant SPHERION ATLANTIC
21 ENTERPRISES LLC was doing business in the State of California through its ownership and 22 operation of numerous recruiting and staffing offices throughout California, as well as recruiting
23 and employing thousands of California employees. PLAINTIFF is informed and believes, and 24 thereon alleges, that at all relevant times, SPHERION ATLANTIC ENTERPRISES LLC
25 employed PLAINTIFF and exercised control over PLAINTIFF's wages, hours and working 26 conditions.

1 3. PLAINTIFF does not know the true names and capacities of Defendants sued herein
2 as DOES 1 through 50, inclusive, and will amend this Complaint to set forth the true names and
3 capacities of said defendants, along with the appropriate charging allegations when the same have 4 been ascertained.

5 4. PLAINTIFF is informed and believes, and on that basis alleges, that each of the 6 fictitiously named defendants was in some manner legally responsible for the actionable and 7 unlawful actions, policies and practices as alleged herein. PLAINTIFF will amend this Complaint
8 to set forth the true names and capacities of said defendants, along with the appropriate charging 9 allegations when the same have been ascertained.

10 5. PLAINTIFF is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that at all times
11 mentioned herein, all Defendants, and each of them, were acting as the agent and/or employee of 12 each remaining co-defendant, and were acting with permission and consent of each other, and 13 within the course and scope of said agency and/or employment. PLAINTIFF is further informed
14 and believes that each co-defendant, by and through its officers, directors or managing agents
15 ratified, authorized and approved, expressly or implicitly, all of the conduct alleged herein.

16 6. When in this Complaint reference is made to any act of the "DEFENDANT," such 17 shall be deemed to mean that officers, directors, agents, employees, or representatives of the 18 Defendants named in this lawsuit committed or authorized such acts, or failed and omitted to 19 adequately supervise or properly control or direct their employees while engaged in the 20 management, direction, operation or control of the affairs of the Defendants and did so while 21 acting within the scope of their employment or agency.

22 7. When in this Complaint reference is made to any act by a "DEFENDANT" or 23 "Defendants" or "co-defendants," such allegations and reference shall also be deemed to mean the 24 acts and failures to act of each of the named Defendants acting individually, jointly and severally.

25 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

26 8. PLAINTIFF realleges by reference, as if fully set forth herein, all of the above
27 Paragraphs.

1 9. This Court has jurisdiction over all causes of action asserted herein pursuant to 2 California Constitution, Article VI, Sec. 10, because this case is a cause not given by statute to 3 other trial courts.

4 10. This Court has jurisdiction over DEFENDANT because each co-defendant is a 5 corporation, limited liability company or other business entity authorized to do business in the 6 State of California and registered with the California Secretary of State to do sufficient business
7 with sufficient minimum contacts in California, and/or otherwise intentionally avail itself of the 8 California market through the ownership and operation of recruiting and staffing offices
9 throughout the State of California, to render the exercise of jurisdiction by the California courts
10 consistent with traditional notions of fair play and substantial justice.

11 11. Venue as to each Defendant is proper in this judicial district, pursuant to Code of 12 Civil Procedure § 395. DEFENDANT'S actionable and unlawful employment practices as to 13 PLAINTIFF occurred in the County of San Diego, State of California.

14 12. The Class Action Fairness Act [28 U.S.C.S. § 1332(d)] ("CAFA") does not apply to 15 the present class action Complaint. The present Complaint is brought solely on behalf of 16 DEFENDANT'S California-based employees. As a result, PLAINTIFF is informed and believes,
17 and thereon alleges, that under subsection (d)(4) of CAFA, a federal district court "shall decline to 18 exercise jurisdiction" of the present matter due to the following: greater than two-thirds of the 19 members of all proposed plaintiff class in the aggregate are citizens of the State of California; and 20 all Defendants are Defendants from whom significant relief is sought by members of the plaintiff
21 class, whose alleged conduct forms a significant basis for the claims asserted by the proposed
22 plaintiff class, and who are citizens of the State of California; and the principal injuries resulting 23 from the alleged conduct or any related conduct of each defendant were incurred in the State of 24 California; and two-thirds or more of the members of all proposed plaintiff classes in the 25 aggregate, and the primary defendants, are citizens of the State of California.

STATUTORY AND REGULATORY BACKGROUNDA. California Labor Code Sections 201 through 203

13. California Labor Code Section 201 requires an employer who discharges an employee to pay compensation due and owing said employee immediately upon discharge. California Labor Code Section 202 requires an employer to promptly pay compensation due and owing an employee within 72 hours of that employee's separation of employment by resignation. California Labor Code Section 203 provides that if an employer willfully fails to pay compensation promptly upon discharge or resignation as required pursuant to California Labor Code Sections 201 and 202, said employer is liable to said employee for waiting time penalties.

B. California Labor Code Sections 218, 218.5 & 218.6

14. Labor Code Section 218 provides a private right of action for employees to sue directly for any wages or penalty due to him/her under this article of the Labor Code. Labor Code Sections 218.5 and 218.6 provide for the recovery of attorneys' fees, costs and pre-judgment interest to the prevailing party in the event of an action to recover wages brought by private individuals.

C. California Labor Code Section 221

15. Labor Code Section 221 prohibits an employer from receiving from an employee any wage paid by the employer to the employee either by unauthorized deductions of employees' wages or recovery after payment of the wage. In referring to "wages" paid, Section 221 prohibits an employer from collecting or receiving wages "that have already been earned by performance of agreed-upon requirements." (Steinhebel v. Los Angeles Times Communications, (2005) 126 Cal.App.4th 696, 707.)

D. California Labor Code Section 226

16. Labor Code Section 226 requires an employer to keep accurate, itemized pay statements. Under California law, the precise, actual number of hours and minutes worked by a non-exempt employee must be accurately itemized on each pay statement. If an employer knowingly and intentionally fails to comply with this section, it is liable for the greater of all actual

1 damages or $50 for the initial pay period in which a violation occurs and $100 per employee for 2 each violation in a subsequent pay period, not exceeding an aggregate penalty of $4,000 per 3 employee.

4 E. California Labor Code Section 226.7

5 17. Labor Code Section 226.7 provides that no employer shall require any non-exempt
6 employee to work during any meal or rest period mandated by an applicable order of the Industrial
7 Welfare Commission. This section also provides that if an employer fails to provide a non-exempt
8 employee a 30 minute meal period and/or 10 minute rest periods in accordance with an applicable
9 order of the Industrial Welfare Commission, the employer shall pay the employee one additional 10 hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of compensation for each work day that the meal period
11 was not provided and one additional hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of compensation for 12 each work day that a rest period is not provided.

13 F. California Labor Code Section 510

14 18. Labor Code Section 510 requires the payment of overtime to nonexempt employees
15 at the rate of 1 ½ times their regular rate of pay for all hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours
16 per day and all hours worked in excess of forty (40) hours per workweek, and payment of overtime
17 to nonexempt employees at the rate of two times the regular rate of pay for all hours in excess of 18 twelve (12) hours per day and all hours worked excess of eight hours on the seventh day worked in 19 any work week.

20 G. California Labor Code Section 512

21 19. Labor Code Section 512 provides that an employer may not employ an employee
22 for a work period of more than five hours per day without providing the employee with a meal
23 period of not less than 30 minutes, except that if the total work period per day of the employee is 24 no more than six hours, the meal period may be waived by mutual consent of both the employer
25 and employee. An employer may not employ an employee for a work period of more than 10 hours
26 per day without providing the employee with a second meal period of not less than 30 minutes,
27 except that if the total hours worked is no more than 12 hours, the second meal period may be

1 waived by mutual consent of the employer and the employee only if the first meal period was not
2 waived.

3 H. Industrial Wage Order 4-2001 (Title 8, California Code of Regulations, § 11040)

4 20. Industrial Wage Order 4-2001 (and its predecessors), governing "Professional,
5 Technical, Clerical, Mechanical and Similar Occupations," is the applicable wage order in this 6 action. Industrial Wage Order 4-2001, which has been enacted into California's regulatory law as
7 Title 8, California Code of Regulations, § 11040, provides that employers must keep accurate time
8 records showing when employees begin and end each meal period [subsection (7)(A)(3)]. In 9 addition, the wage order provides that every employer shall permit all employees to take rest
10 periods in the middle of each work period. The authorized rest period is to be based on the total
11 hours worked daily at the rate of ten (10) minutes net rest time per four (4) hours or major fraction
12 thereof. [subsection (12)(A)]. The regulation also defines an "employer" as "any person as defined
13 in Section 18 of the Labor Code, who directly or indirectly, or through an agent or any other 14 person, employs or exercises control over the wages, hours, or working conditions of any person."

15 I. California Business & Professions Code Section 17200 et seq.

16 21. California Business & Professions Code § 17200 defines unfair competition to 17 include "unlawful, unfair or fraudulent business practices."

18 22. California Business & Professions Code § 17203 provides that "[t]he court may 19 make such orders or judgments...as may be necessary to prevent the use or employment by any 20 person of any practice which constitutes unfair competition, as defined in this chapter, or as may be 21 necessary to restore any person in interest any money or property, real or personal, which may 22 have been acquired by means of unfair competition."

23 23. California Business & Professions Code § 17204 provides for suits for injunctive
24 relief, restitution and disgorgement of profits.

CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

24. PLAINTIFF brings the First through Eighth Causes of Action of this suit as a class action pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure § 382, on behalf of all individuals employed by DEFENDANT in the State of California in hourly, non-exempt positions during the relevant time period. This action is also brought for the benefit of the general public.

25. The putative classes PLAINTIFF will seek to certify are currently composed of and defined as follows:

- a. All current and former California-based, hourly, non-exempt employees of Defendant SPHERION ATLANTIC ENTERPRISES LLC who were employed by SPHERION ATLANTIC ENTERPRISES LLC between September 25, 2003 and the present (hereinafter, "the CLASS").
- b. All former California-based, hourly, non-exempt employees of Defendant SPHERION ATLANTIC ENTERPRISES LLC who separated their employment with SPHERION ATLANTIC ENTERPRISES LLC between September 25, 2004 and the present (hereinafter, "the SUBCLASS.")

26. Numerosity: The potential quantity of members of the CLASS and SUBCLASS as defined is so numerous that joinder of all members would be unfeasible and unpractical. The disposition of their claims through this class action will benefit both the parties and this Court. The quantity of members of the CLASS and SUBCLASS is currently unknown to PLAINTIFF; however, it is estimated that there are at least 50,000 members in the CLASS and at least 10,000 members in the SUBCLASS. The quantity and identity of such membership is readily ascertainable via inspection of DEFENDANT'S records.

27. Typicality: The claims of PLAINTIFF are typical of the claims of all members of the CLASS and SUBCLASS mentioned herein because all members of the CLASS and SUBCLASS sustained injuries and damages arising out of DEFENDANT'S common course of

1 conduct in violation of California wage and hour law, and the injuries and damages of all members
2 of the CLASS and SUBCLASS were caused by DEFENDANT'S wrongful conduct in violation of 3 California statutory and regulatory law, as alleged herein.

4 28. Adequacy: PLAINTIFF is an adequate representative of the CLASS and 5 SUBCLASS and will fairly protect the interests of the members of the CLASS and SUBCLASS,
6 and has no interests antagonistic to the members of the CLASS and SUBCLASS, and will
7 vigorously pursue this suit via attorneys who are competent, skilled and experienced in litigating
8 matters of this type.

9 29. Superiority. The nature of this action and the nature of the laws available to 10 PLAINTIFF make the use of the class action format a particularly effective and appropriate
11 procedure to afford relief to PLAINTIFF for the wrongs alleged herein:

12 a. This case involves large corporate Defendants and a large number of 13 individual class members with common issues of law and fact. According to 14 DEFENDANT'S website, www.spherion.com, DEFENDANT employs 15 "[a]pproximately 300,000" employees "making Spherion one of the top
16 employers in North America;"

17 b. If each individual member of the CLASS and SUBCLASS were required to 18 file an individual lawsuit, the large corporate Defendant would necessarily 19 gain an unconscionable advantage because DEFENDANT would be able to 20 exploit and overwhelm the limited resources of each member of the CLASS
21 and SUBCLASS with DEFENDANT'S vastly superior financial and legal 22 resources.

23 c. Requiring each individual member of the CLASS and SUBCLASS to pursue
24 an individual remedy would also discourage the assertion of lawful claims
25 by the members of the CLASS and SUBCLASS who would be disinclined
26 to pursue an action against DEFENDANT because of an appreciable and

1 justifiable fear of retaliation and permanent damage to their lives, careers
2 and well being;

3 d. Proof of a common business practice or factual pattern, of which the 4 members of the CLASS and SUBCLASS experienced, is representative of 5 the CLASS and SUBCLASS herein and will establish the right of each of 6 the members of CLASS and SUBCLASS to recover on the causes of action
7 alleged herein;

8 e. The prosecution of separate actions by the individual members of the 9 CLASS and SUBCLASS, even if possible, would create a substantial risk of 10 inconsistent and varying verdicts or adjudications with respect to the 11 individual members of the CLASS and SUBCLASS against DEFENDANT, 12 which would establish potentially incompatible standards of conduct for 13 DEFENDANT and/or legal determinations with respect to individual
14 members of the CLASS and SUBCLASS.

15 30. Existence and Predominance of Common Questions of Fact and Law:

16 There are common questions of fact and law as to the members of the CLASS and 17 SUBCLASS, which predominate over questions affecting only individual members of the CLASS
18 and SUBCLASS including, without limitation:

19 a. Whether the members of the CLASS were subjected to unauthorized and 20 illegal deduction of their earned wages;

21 b. Whether the members of the CLASS were expected, required, permitted
22 and/or suffered to work overtime hours on a regular basis;

23 c. Whether the members of the CLASS were paid overtime compensation in 24 accordance with California statutory and regulatory law;

25 d. Whether the members of the CLASS were provided with 30-minute meal
26 breaks;

27 e. Whether DEFENDANT has failed to keep accurate time records showing

1 when members of the CLASS begin and end each meal break;

2 f. Whether the members of the CLASS were provided with 10-minute rest
3 periods;

4 g. Whether the members of the SUBCLASS received all compensation owed
5 and due at the time of their separation of employment;

6 h. Whether the members of the SUBCLASS are entitled to seek recovery of 7 penalties pursuant to Labor Code § 203;

8 i. Whether DEFENDANT properly itemized the wage statements of the 9 members of the CLASS;

10 j. Whether DEFENDANT'S conduct constituted unfair or unlawful business
11 practices within the meaning of Business & Professions Code § 17200 et 12 seq.;

13 k. Whether the members of the CLASS and SUBCLASS are entitled to 14 compensatory damages, and if so, the means of measuring such damages;

15 l. Whether the members of the CLASS and SUBCLASS are entitled to 16 injunctive relief;

17 m. Whether the members of the CLASS and SUBCLASS are entitled to 18 restitution;

19 n. Whether the members of the CLASS and SUBCLASS are entitled to 20 disgorgement of profits;

21 o. Whether DEFENDANT is liable for pre-judgment interest; and

22 p. Whether DEFENDANT is liable for attorneys' fees and costs.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

(Unlawful Deductions of Wages Earned in Violation of California Labor Code Sections 204 & 221)

(On Behalf of the CLASS)

31. PLAINTIFF realleges by reference, as if fully set forth herein, all of the above Paragraphs.

32. PLAINTIFF alleges, on the basis of information and belief, that at all relevant times DEFENDANT has continuously engaged in the regular practice of deducting, collecting and/or receiving wages earned by members of the and CLASS. As a result, members of the CLASS have not been paid all wages earned in performing work for DEFENDANT.

10 33. PLAINTIFF alleges, on the basis of information and belief, that DEFENDANT was 11 not authorized, required nor empowered to deduct, collect and/or receive wages from the members
12 of the CLASS pursuant to state or federal law, nor express authorization of the members of the and 13 CLASS, in writing, to cover insurance premiums, hospital or medical dues, nor pursuant to an 14 enforceable and lawful wage agreement or statute.

15 34. PLAINTIFF alleges, on the basis of information and belief, that DEFENDANT'S 16 regular practice of deducting, collecting and/or receiving wages earned by the members of the 17 CLASS violates California Labor Code sections 204 and 221.

18 35. As a result of the actions of DEFENDANT, in deducting, collecting and/or 19 receiving wages earned by the members of the CLASS, members of the CLASS were damaged by 20 not receiving wages that they should have received. Members of the CLASS are therefore entitled 21 to compensation in an amount to be proven at trial for unpaid wages, pre-judgment interest,
22 attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code sections 218, 218.5 & 218.6.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

(Failure to Pay Overtime Compensation in Violation of California Labor Code Sections 510 & 1194)

(On Behalf of the CLASS)

4 36. PLAINTIFF realleges by reference, as if fully set forth herein, all of the above
5 Paragraphs.

37. PLAINTIFF alleges, on the basis of information and belief, that at all relevant times
DEFENDANT has continuously engaged in the regular practice of requiring, suffering or permitting members of the CLASS to work hours in excess of eight hours per day and/or 40 hours per week.

10 38. The laws of the State of California require employers, such as DEFENDANT, to 11 pay overtime compensation to all non-exempt employees. PLAINTIFF alleges, on the basis of 12 information and belief, that members of the CLASS are not exempt from overtime pay
13 requirements under California law. PLAINTIFF further alleges that all members of the CLASS
14 have been classified by DEFENDANT as non-exempt, hourly employees.

15 39. As a result of the actions of DEFENDANT in failing and/or refusing to pay
16 overtime compensation, members of the CLASS were damaged by not receiving overtime
17 compensation which they should have received, but did not receive. Members of the CLASS are 18 therefore entitled to compensation in an amount to be proven at trial for unpaid overtime, pre-
19 judgment interest, attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code section 1194.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

(Failure to Provide 30-Minute Employee Meal Period)

(On Behalf of the CLASS)

23 40. PLAINTIFF realleges by reference, as if fully set forth herein, all of the above
Paragraphs.

41. PLAINTIFF alleges, on the basis of information and belief, that within each of the 25 four years prior to the commencement of this action, DEFENDANT promulgated and enforced
26 policies under which members of the CLASS regularly worked more than five hours in a day
27 without being provided with a thirty-minute meal period during which members of the CLASS
28

1 were relieved of all of their respective work duties. DEFENDANT also promulgated and enforced
2 policies under which members of the and CLASS regularly worked more than ten hours in a day
3 without being provided with a second thirty-minute meal period during which members of the 4 CLASS were relieved of all of their respective work duties.

5 42. PLAINTIFF alleges, on the basis of information and belief, that at all relevant
6 times, DEFENDANT has failed to maintain accurate records of when members of the CLASS
7 begin and end each meal period.

8 43. PLAINTIFF alleges, on the basis of information and belief, that members of the 9 CLASS are entitled to additional wages pursuant to California Labor Code Section 226.7 for each
10 work shift lasting more than five hours during which members of the CLASS were not provided 11 with one or more thirty minute meal periods.

12 44. As a result of DEFENDANT'S conduct as alleged herein, members of the CLASS
13 have suffered harm and monetary damages, in an amount to be ascertained at trial.

14 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION
15 (Failure to Allow 10-Minute Employee Rest Periods)

16 (On Behalf of the CLASS)

17 45. PLAINTIFF realleges by reference, as if fully set forth herein, all of the above
18 Paragraphs.

19 46. PLAINTIFF alleges, on the basis of information and belief, that within each of the 20 four years prior to the commencement of this action, DEFENDANT promulgated and enforced
21 policies under which members of the CLASS regularly worked more than four hours per day 22 without being allowed one or more paid rest periods of at least ten minutes during which the 23 members of the CLASS were relieved of all of their respective work duties.

24 47. PLAINTIFF alleges, on the basis of information and belief, that members of the
25 CLASS are entitled to additional wages pursuant to California Labor Code Section 226.7 for each
26 four hour work period during which members of the CLASS were not provided with one or more 27 ten minute rest periods.

1 48. As a result of DEFENDANT'S conduct as alleged herein, members of the CLASS
2 have suffered harm and monetary damages, in an amount to be ascertained at trial.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Failure to Reimburse for Reasonable Business Expenses in Violation of Labor Code § 2802; Cal. Code Regs., Title 8 § 11040 sections 8 & 9)

(On Behalf of the CLASS)

6 49. PLAINTIFF realleges by reference, as if fully set forth herein, all of the above
7 Paragraphs.

8 50. Labor Code Section 2802 provides that an employer shall indemnify his or her
9 employee for all necessary expenditures or losses incurred by the employee in direct consequence
10 of the discharge of his or her duties, or of his or her obedience to the directions of the employer.
11 Title 8 CCR § 11010(8) provides that "No employer shall make any deduction from the wage or 12 require any reimbursement from an employee for any cash shortage, breakage, or loss of 13 equipment, unless it can be shown that the shortage, breakage, or loss is cause by a dishonest or 14 willful act, or by the gross negligence of the employee."

15 51. During the applicable statutory period, PLAINTIFF and the members of the CLASS 16 incurred necessary expenditures and losses in direct consequence of the discharge of their 17 employment duties and their obedience to the directions of DEFENDANT, including but not 18 limited to travel expenses, gas charges, mileage, cell phone charges, laptop computer usage, and 19 other similar expenditures.

52. PLAINTIFF is informed and believes that pursuant to California Labor Code § 2802 and Title 8 CCR § 11040(8) & (9), PLAINTIFF and the members of the CLASS are entitled to recover their un-reimbursed expenditures and losses, interest thereon and attorneys' fees and costs, in amounts to be proven at trial.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Failure to Provide Properly Itemized Wage Statements in Violation of Labor Code §§ 226 and 226.3; Cal. Code Regs., Title 8 § 11040 section 7)

(On Behalf of the CLASS)

53. PLAINTIFF realleges by reference, as if fully set forth herein, all of the above Paragraphs.

7 54. Labor Code Section 226 requires an employer to keep accurate, itemized pay
8 statements. Under California law, gross wages earned, the precise, actual number of hours and 9 minutes worked by a non-exempt employee, all deductions, net wages earned, inclusive dates of 10 the pay period, the name of the employee, the name and address of the legal entity that is the 11 employer, and all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period must be accurately 12 itemized on each pay statement. Furthermore, the deductions made from payment of wages must 13 be recorded, properly dated, and a copy of the statement or a record of the deductions shall be kept
14 on file by the employer for at least three years at the place of employment or at a central location
15 within the State of California.

16 55. During the applicable statutory period, DEFENDANT has routinely failed to 17 provide the members of the CLASS, at the time of each payment of wages, an itemized statement
18 in writing showing the requirements of Labor Code § 226 and section 7 of Title 8 CCR § 11040.
19 DEFENDANT'S failure to provide itemized statements to the members of the CLASS has been 20 knowing and intentional and was in clear violation of Labor Code § 226(a). In direct violation of 21 California law, DEFENDANT has refused to provide the members of the CLASS with any record
22 or documentation of expenses deducted from such employees' earnings.

23 56. The members of the CLASS have suffered injuries as a result of the knowing and 24 intentional failure of DEFENDANT to comply with Labor Code § 226(a) and Title 8 CCR §
25 11040(7), in that DEFENDANT'S failure to provide Class Members with an itemized wage
26 statement made it impossible for the members of the CLASS to be aware that unlawful deductions
27 were being made from their earnings, that they were not being paid all wages earned, and that in

1 certain instances their wages fell below the statutory hourly minimum wage and overtime wage
2 rates.

3 57. PLAINTIFF is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that DEFENDANT'S
4 knowing and intentional failure to furnish the members of the CLASS with itemized wage
5 statements, as alleged above, violated Labor Code § 226(a), as well as Title 8 CCR § 11040(7).
6 Labor Code § 226(e) entitles PLAINTIFF and the members of the CLASS to recover the greater of 7 their actual damages caused by DEFENDANT'S violations, or $50 per employee for the initial pay
8 period in which the violation occurred, and $100 per employee for each violation in subsequent 9 pay periods, not exceeding an aggregate penalty of $4,000 per employee.

10 SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

11 (Failure to Pay Compensation at the Time of Termination in Violation of California Labor Code Sections 201-203).

12 (On Behalf of the SUBCLASS)

13 58. PLAINTIFF realleges by reference, as if fully set forth herein, all of the above
14 Paragraphs.

15 59. PLAINTIFF alleges, on the basis of information and belief, that DEFENDANT has 16 willfully failed and have refused to pay all compensation and wages due to members of the 17 members of the SUBCLASS upon their separation of employment.

18 60. DEFENDANT'S failure to timely pay compensation and wages to members of the 19 members of the SUBCLASS at the time of their separation of employment is willful. As a result,
20 DEFENDANT is liable to members of the members of the SUBCLASS for waiting time penalties
21 under California Labor Code Section 203 in an amount to be ascertained at trial.

(On behalf of PLAINTIFF, the CLASS, and the General Public)

61. PLAINTIFF realleges by reference, as if fully set forth herein, all of the above Paragraphs.

62. Within each of the four years prior to the commencement of this action, PLAINTIFF is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that DEFENDANT has unlawfully failed to pay hourly wages and overtime wages to Class Members, including Plaintiff, in violation of Labor Code §§ 204, 221.510, 1194, 1197 and 1197.1; unlawfully failed to provide meal breaks, or compensation in lieu thereof, to Class Members, including PLAINTIFF, in violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512; unlawfully failed to provide rest periods, or compensation in lieu thereof, to Class Members, including PLAINTIFF, in violation of Labor Code § 226.7; unlawfully failed to reimburse Class Members, including PLAINTIFF, for reasonable business expenditures in violation of Labor Code § 2802; and unlawfully failed to provide properly itemized wage statements to Class Members, including PLAINTIFF, in violation of Labor Code § 226.

63. By committing the alleged acts and/or omissions as described in this Complaint, DEFENDANT has engaged, and continue to engage, in unlawful and/or unfair business practices within the meaning of California Business & Professions Code § 17200 et seq.

64. PLAINTIFF alleges, on the basis of information and belief, that as a result of DEFENDANT'S alleged acts and/or omissions as described in this Complaint, DEFENDANT has unlawfully earned profits from such unlawful and/or unfair business practices.

65. A request for injunctive relief, restitution and for the disgorgement of unlawfully earned profits is specifically authorized by California Business & Professions Code § 17200 et seq. Thus, on behalf of members of the CLASS, and on behalf of the general public, PLAINTIFF seeks injunctive relief, restitution (to members of the CLASS) of all unlawfully withheld funds, and the disgorgement of all unlawfully earned profits (to members of the CLASS) obtained by DEFENDANT as a result of DEFENDANT'S alleged acts and/or omissions as described in this Complaint.

1 66. PLAINTIFF is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that unless restrained
2 and ordered to pay restitution and disgorge profits derived from said unfair and unlawful business
3 practices, DEFENDANT will continue to engage in the alleged acts and/or omissions as described
4 in this Complaint.

You have 30 CALENDAR DAYS after this summons and legal papers are served on you to file a written response at this court and have a copy served on the plaintiff. A letter or phone call will not protect you. Your written response must be in proper legal form if you want the court to hear your case. There may be a court form that you can use for your response. You can find these court forms and more information at the California Courts Online Self-Help Center (www.courtinfo.ca.gov/sephelp), your county law library, or the courthouse nearest you. If you cannot pay the filing fee, ask the court clerk for a fee waiver form. If you do not file your response on time, you may lose the case by default, and your wages, money, and property may be taken without further warning from the court.

There are other legal requirements. You may want to call an attorney right away. If you do not know an attorney, you may want to call an attorney referral service. If you cannot afford an attorney, you may be eligible for free legal services from a nonprofit legal services program. You can locate these nonprofit groups at the California Legal Services Web site (www.lawhelpcalifornia.org), the California Courts Online Self-Help Center (www.courtinfo.ca.gov/sephelp), or by contacting your local court or county bar association.

Tiene 30 DÍAS DE CALENDARIO después de que se entreguen esta citación y papeles legales para presentar una respuesta por escrito en esta corte y hacer que se entregue una copia al demandante. Una carta o una llamada telefónica no lo protegen. Su respuesta por escrito tiene que estar en formato legal correcto si desea que procesen su caso en la corte. Es posible que haya un formulario que usted pueda usar para su respuesta. Puede encontrar estos formularios de la corte y más información en el Centro de Ayuda de las Cortes de California (www.courtinfo.ca.gov/sephelp/espanol), en la biblioteca de leyes de su condado o en la corte que le queda más cerca. Si no puede pagar la cuota de presentación, pida al secretario de la corte que le dé un formulario de exención de pago de cuotas. Si no presenta su respuesta a tiempo, puede perder el caso por incumplimiento y la corte le podrá quitar su sueldo, dinero y bienes sin más advertencia.

Hay otros requisitos legales. Es recomendable que llame a un abogado inmediatamente. Si no conoce a un abogado, puede llamar a un servicio de remisión a abogados. Si no puede pagar a un abogado, es posible que cumpla con los requisitos para obtener servicios legales gratuitos de un programa de servicios legales sin fines de lucro. Puede encontrar estos grupos sin fines de lucro en el sitio web de California Legal Services, (www.lawhelpcalifornia.org), en el Centro de Ayuda de las Cortes de California, (www.courtinfo.ca.gov/sephelp/espanol) o poniéndose en contacto con la corte o el colegio de abogados locales.

Case No. 37-2007-00075612-CU-OE-CTL

ANSWER OF DEFENDANT
 SPHERION ATLANTIC ENTERPRISE,
 LLC TO PLAINTIFF'S UNVERIFIED
 COMPLAINT

VIA FAX

17
 18 Defendant Spherion Atlantic Enterprises, LLC ("Spherion"), for itself alone and no other 19 defendant, hereby answers the unverified complaint of Plaintiff Philip Martinet ("Plaintiff") as 20 follows:

21 GENERAL DENIAL

22 Pursuant to the provisions of California Code of Civil Procedure, section 431.30, 23 Spherion denies, generally and specifically, each and every allegation, statement, matter and 24 each purported cause of action contained in Plaintiff's unverified Complaint, and without 25 limiting the generality of the foregoing, denies generally and specifically that Plaintiff has been 26 damaged in any way at all by reason of any acts or omissions of Spherion.

27 III

28

SCI 17087181.1

ANSWER

AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES

2 In further answer to Plaintiff's unverified Complaint, Spherion alleges the following
3 affirmative defenses. In asserting these defenses, Spherion does not assume the burden of proof
4 as to matters that, pursuant to law, are Plaintiff's burden to prove.

FIRST DEFENSE

(Failure To State a Cause of Action)

7 1. As to Plaintiff's Complaint, or any purported cause of action therein alleged,
8 Plaintiff fails to state facts sufficient to constitute claims upon which relief can be granted
9 against Spherion.

SECOND DEFENSE

(Statute of Limitations)

12 2. Plaintiff's claims, in whole or in part, are barred by the applicable statutes of 13 limitations, including, but not limited to, Code of Civil Procedure, section 337, 338, 339, and 340
14 and B&P Code § 17208.

THIRD DEFENSE

(Estoppel)

17 3. Plaintiff, by his conduct, is estopped to assert any cause of action against 18 Spherion.

FOURTH DEFENSE

(Waiver)

21 4. Plaintiff's Complaint, and each and every cause of action alleged therein, is 22 barred by the doctrine of waiver.

FIFTH DEFENSE

(Unclean Hands)

25 5. Plaintiff's Complaint, and each and every cause of action alleged therein, is 26 barred by the doctrine of unclean hands.

SIXTH DEFENSE

(Laches)

6. Plaintiff has delayed inexcusably and unreasonably in the filing of this action causing substantial prejudice to Spherion and, thus, Plaintiff's claims are barred by the equitable doctrine of laches.

SEVENTH DEFENSE

(Res Judicata/Collateral Estoppel)

7. The complaint is barred by the doctrines of res judicata and/or collateral estoppel to the extent that Plaintiff, any class member or other putative beneficiary of this action has asserted in any prior legal or administrative proceeding that he or she was entitled to unpaid overtime, additional payment for meal periods, and or penalties and did not prevail on such claim.

EIGHTH DEFENSE

(No Discharge or Quit)

8. Because the ending of Plaintiff's temporary assignment with Spherion does not qualify as a "discharge" under Labor Code, section 201, Plaintiff is ineligible to recover penalties under Labor Code, section 203.

NINTH DEFENSE

(No Willful Violation of Labor Code, section 203)

9. Plaintiff's Complaint is barred because Spherion cannot be held to have willfully failed to comply with the requirements of Labor Code, section 201 or 203.

TENTH DEFENSE

(Good Faith Dispute)

10. Plaintiff is not entitled to any Labor Code, section 203, waiting time penalties because a good faith dispute exists as to the monies allegedly owed, such that Spherion cannot be held to have willfully failed to comply with the requirements of Labor Code, section 201.

ELEVENTH DEFENSE

(Due Process)

11. Plaintiff's claims under B&P Code § 17200 et seq. violated defendant's constitutional right to due process to the extent the claims do not afford defendant protections against multiple suits and duplicative liability ordinarily provided by class actions.

TWELFTH DEFENSE

(Non-Certifiable Class)

12. The Complaint does not state facts sufficient to certify a class and this action is not properly brought as a class or collective action.

THIRTEENTH DEFENSE

(Claims are Moot)

13. Plaintiff's claims fail because they are moot.

FOURTEENTH DEFENSE

(Failure to Exhaust Administrative Remedies)

14. Plaintiff's Complaint and each and every cause of action attempted to be stated
15 therein are barred to the extent that Plaintiff or other putative beneficiaries of this action have 16 failed to exhaust their administrative remedies prior to commencing this action.
17

FIFTEENTH DEFENSE

(Remedies at Law)

20 15. Plaintiff or other putative beneficiaries of this action are not entitled to the 21 equitable relief sought insofar as they, and each of them, have an adequate remedy at law.

SIXTEENTH DEFENSE

(Offset)

24 16. To the extent that Plaintiff or other putative beneficiaries of this action have 25 received other benefits and/or awards attributable to an injury for which they seek compensation
26 in this case, such benefits and/or awards should offset, in whole or in part, any award they may 27 receive in this action for the same injury.

SEVENTEENTH DEFENSE

(Labor Code 2856)

3 17. The Complaint and each cause of action attempted to be stated therein are barred
4 in whole or in part to the extent that Plaintiff or any class member or putative beneficiary of this
5 action failed to substantially comply with all the directions of defendant, and such failure
6 proximately caused the alleged losses for which they seek relief.

EIGHTEENTH DEFENSE

(Reservation of Rights)

9 18. Defendant does not presently know all of the facts and circumstances respecting 10 Plaintiff's claims. Defendant therefore reserves the right to amend this answer should it later
11 discover facts demonstrating the existence of additional affirmative defenses.

PRAYER

WHEREFORE, Spherion Atlantic Enterprises LLC prays for judgment as follows:

14 1. That Plaintiff take nothing by his unverified complaint;

15 2. That Plaintiff's request for an order certifying a proposed class is denied;

16 3. That judgment be entered in favor of Spherion and against Plaintiff on all causes

17 of action;

18 4. That Spherion be awarded reasonable attorneys' fees, as permitted by statute or

19 contract, according to proof;

20 5. That Spherion be awarded the costs of suit incurred herein; and

21 6. That Spherion be awarded such other and further relief as the Court may deem 22 appropriate.
